UNIVERSITY OF DAYTON MUSIC DEPARTMENT PRESENTS BAROQUE CHAMBER RECITAL

DAYTON, Ohio -- The University of Dayton music department will present a Baroque chamber recital at 8 p.m. Friday, March 12, in UD's Immaculate Conception Chapel. Admission to the recital is free and open to the public.

Julane Rodgers, instructor of music at UD, will perform on the harpsichord and David Wilcox, a doctoral student at the Early Music Institute at Indiana University, will perform on the baroque violin. The program will include pieces by Johann Sebastian Bach, Arcangelo Corelli, Francois Couperin and Jean-Baptiste Forqueray.
